TITLE 20
CHAPTER ONE: DEFINITIONS AND APPLICATION

20-1-101 Definitions

The definitions in this Title shall apply only to this Title of the Spirit Lake Law and Order Code.
(1) The term "sex offender" shall include any person who has pled guilty, been found guilty, been found not guilty by reason of insanity, or otherwise convicted of any sex offense under any tribal, state, federal or foreign law.

(2) The term "sex offense" shall include those offenses contained in 42 U.S.C. 16911(5)(as amended) and those offenses enumerate in Chapter 2 of this Title or other sex related crimes qualifying as a registerable offense under tribal, state or federal law.

(3) The term "at risk" means a specific risk of a person being the victim of a sex offense.

(4) The term "convicted" means that the sex offender has been subject to penal consequences based upon an order from a criminal or delinquency court regardless of age at the time of the offense or the severity of the offense. This shall include but not be limited to convictions in tribal, state, federal and foreign courts. A juvenile conviction shall be considered if the juvenile has been tried and convicted as an adult for a sex offense; has been legally emancipated by a court of competent jurisdiction prior to the time of the offense; or has been adjudicated delinquent for a sex offense so long as the offender is 14 years of age or older at the time of the offense.

(5) The terms "incarceration" or "imprisonment" means placement and confinement in an institution, regardless of the nature of the institution in which the offender serves the sentence, by way of a court order resulting from a criminal or delinquency court conviction. This shall include, but not be limited to placement or confinement in a prison, jail, detention facility, treatment facility and placements on house arrest. This term is to be interpreted broadly to include a state prison, federal or military prison, BIA detention facility, private or contract facility, or a local or tribal jail.

(6) The term "sexual act" shall include:
   (a) Contact between the penis and the vulva or the penis and the anus, and for purposes of this definition contact involving the penis occurs upon penetration, however slight;
   (b) Contact between the mouth and the penis, the mouth and the vulva, or the mouth and the anus;
(c) The penetration, however slight, of the anal or genital opening of another by a hand or finger or by any object, with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person; or

(d) The intentional touching, not through the clothing, of the genitalia of another person that has not attained the age of 18 years with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person.

(7) The term "sexual contact" shall include any intentional sexual touching of or contact with the genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh or buttocks of an individual, either directly or through the clothing of the individual, and with the intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade or arouse or gratify desires of another person.

(8) The term "sexually violent offense" for purposes of the classification of sex offenses a sexually violent offense shall include any nonconsensual sexual assault crimes involving penetration, rape or sodomy or similar acts. These offenses shall also include a sexual act perpetrated by violence, threat of serious violence or by rendering unconscious or involuntarily drugging a victim.

(9) The term "school" for the purposes of 20-1-104 exclusively shall include any pre-school, elementary school, high school or alternative school and shall specifically exclude any institution of higher education or higher learning. Any institution of higher education or higher learning shall, within the institution's discretion, prescribe policies and procedures governing the admission or presence of sex offenders within their respective programs and facilities. All convicted sex offenders attending institutions of higher education or higher learning shall be required to register with the Spirit Lake Tribe Sex Offender Registry Program in accordance with all other provisions of Title 20.

20-1-102 Application

A) No waiver of immunity. Nothing under this Title shall be construed as a waiver of sovereign immunity for the Spirit Lake Tribal Tribe, its elected officials, its departments, agencies, employees, or agents. Any person acting under good faith of this Title shall be immune from any civil liability arising out of such actions.

B) This title shall apply to any individual who resides, attends school, or is employed within the Spirit Lake Tribe reservation or to any individual who enters the Spirit Lake Tribe reservation for the purposes of adjudication, incarceration, education, study, work, the conduct of business, the conduct of personal affairs, or for any other purpose if that individual has been convicted of an attempt or conspiracy to commit a sex offense, including, but not limited to:
