IF I TEST POSITIVE FOR COVID-19
When should I be re-tested?

The CDC no longer recommends re-testing for 90 Days after testing positive.

As some people can continue to test positive for up to 3 months after being diagnosed with COVID-19 and not be infectious to others.

For more information:
CDC.gov/coronavirus