

TITLE 3: CRIMINAL ACTIONS

Chapter 1: Jurisdiction

§3-1-101 Criminal Jurisdiction-Generally.

The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction over all offenses enumerated in this Code, or in other enactments of the Council. The Tribal Court shall have criminal jurisdiction over any Indian. An Indian is defined as any person of Indian descent who is a member of a federally recognized Indian Tribe according to the laws of that Tribe, and any other person recognized by federal law as an Indian for any purpose.

Chapter 2: Criminal Procedure-Generally.

§ 3-2-101 Complaints.

Prosecution for violations of this Code shall be by complaint. No complaint filed in Court shall be valid unless it shall bear the signature of the plaintiff or complaining witness, a Prosecutor, a Presenting Officer, a police officer, a police employee, and is witnessed by the Clerk or a licensed notary public, provided, that citations issued pursuant to this Code shall satisfy this Section. All complaints must be on behalf of and in the name of the Spirit Lake Tribe.

§3-2-102 Limitation on Filing of Complaint.

No complaint shall be filed charging the commission of any offense defined by this Code, unless the offense shall have been committed within a two-year period prior to the date of the complaint. If the complaint has been filed within the two-year period, there shall be no time limitation on further prosecution of the complaint, including apprehension, arrest, trial and sentencing, except as provided for in this Code. In calculating the two- year period, time absent from the Reservation shall not be included. This section shall not apply to actions in Juvenile Court.

§3-2-103 Hot Pursuit.

Any police officer who observes any person inside the Reservation committing an offense defined by this Code or by federal law or who has probable cause to believe that the person has committed an offense, or who shall have a warrant commanding the officer to apprehend the person, may pursue and capture the person or seize and impound the property in the person's possession if the person is attempting to flee the Reservation.

§3-2-104 Grounds for Arrest.

No member of the Tribal Police Department or other law enforcement officer of the Tribal shall arrest or apprehend any person for an alleged criminal offense except under the following circumstances:

- (1) When such offense shall occur in the presence of the arresting officer; or
- (2) When the arresting officer shall have probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has committed such an offense; or
- (3) When the arresting officer acts pursuant to a warrant executed by the Tribal Court commanding the officer to arrest such person.

§3-2-105 Warrants for Arrest.

The Tribal Court shall have the authority to issue Warrants for Arrest. Such warrants may be issued ex parte, without a hearing, but only upon satisfaction of the issuing Judge that there is probable cause for the arrest. Such a warrant may be issued only upon a written complaint filed with the Tribal Court, bearing the signature of the complainant or the complaining witness, based upon reliable information or belief, which charges the commission of a criminal offense. Service of Warrants for Arrest shall be made only by a member of the Tribal Police Department or other duly authorized law enforcement officer of the Tribe.

§3-2-106 Searches Pursuant to an Arrest or Warrant.

Neither member of the Tribal Police Department nor any law enforcement officer of the Tribe shall search the person or property of any person, without the consent of that person, unless the search is incident to a lawful arrest or pursuant to a Warrant for Search and Seizure issued by the Tribal Court. If search is incident to a lawful arrest, the arresting officer may search the person so arrested and the person's property then under the person's direct and immediate control to locate and prevent the use of weapons and to prevent the destruction of evidence of the commission of the underlying criminal offense.

§3-2-107 Warrants for Searches and Seizures.

The Tribal Court shall have the authority to issue Warrants for Search and Seizure of any person, to search the physical person, premises and any property within the Reservation. Such a Warrant may be issued ex parte, without a hearing, but only upon the satisfaction of the issuing Judge that there is probable cause for the search and seizure. Such a Warrant may be issued only upon written complaint filed with the Tribal Court, bearing the signature of the complainant or the complaining witness based upon reliable information or belief, which charges the commission of a criminal offense. No Warrant for Search and Seizure shall be valid unless it sufficiently bears the description and name of the person or property to be searched and seized and describes with sufficiency the articles or property to be seized.

§3-2-108 Service of Search and Seizure Warrants.

Service of Warrants for Search and Seizure and the conduct of the search shall be only by a member of the Tribal Police Department or other duly authorized law enforcement officer of the Tribe. An inventory of the items or property seized shall be filed with the Tribal Court and a copy shall be forwarded to the person from whom the items or property was seized.

§3-2-109 Pre-Sentence Confinement.

No person shall be detained, confined, jailed or imprisoned for more than 30 days prior to sentencing under the authority of the Tribe and this Code, unless pursuant to an order of commitment issued by the Tribal Court.

§3-2-110 Duties of an Officer.

A police officer that makes an arrest and/or search and seizure shall proceed as follows:

- (1) The officer shall inform the person to be arrested of his/her rights prior to any custodial questioning.
- (2) The officer shall announce and identify himself/herself prior to making of an arrest and/or search and seizure of property, unless the identification is impracticable, presents a danger to the officer and/or the officer reasonably believes the identification will enable evidence of a crime to be destroyed.
- (3) The officer shall advise the person in control or possession of the premises to be searched or property to be seized of the person's rights prior to making a search or seizure.
- (4) The officer shall advise the person to be arrested or the person in control or possession of the premises to be searched or property to be seized whether the officer has a search warrant.

Chapter 3: Bail

§3-3-101 Eligibility for Bail.

In accordance to the provisions of this Code, any person, charged with a criminal offense, may be admitted to bail by the Tribal Court at any time prior to a final judgment on the charge or pending appeal on the final judgment.

§3-3-102 Cash or Surety Bond.

The Court may require, as a condition of bail, the posting of cash or surety bond in an amount not to exceed $5,000.00 which, in the opinion of the Tribal Court, will ensure the appearance of the person at all times and places lawfully required.

§3-3-103 Promise to Appear.

In the discretion of the Tribal Court, the Court may admit a person to bail who promises in writing to appear before the Tribal Court at all times and places lawfully required; provided, however, the Tribal Court shall not admit a person to bail upon such promise if the Tribal Court is not reasonably satisfied that the person will appear when and where so required.

§3-3-104 Terms and Conditions of Bail.

In admitting any person to bail, the Tribal Court may set such terms and conditions as the Court, in its discretion, may deem necessary or appropriate.

§3-3-105 Ineligibility for Bail.

A person shall not be admitted to bail when the person is in an intoxicated condition.

§3-3-106 Violation of the Terms and Conditions of Bail.

Violation by a person of any of the terms and conditions of the bail, or a failure to appear when and where lawfully required, shall be contempt of Court, which shall be punished according to the provisions of this Code. In addition, the Tribal Court may order any bond to be forfeited and may issue a Warrant for the Arrest of the violator and may hold the violator without bail until the next hearing.

§3-3-107 Return of Bail or Bond.

Any cash or surety bond, which has not been ordered to be forfeited shall be returned upon final judgment on the charge, including the completion of any appeal.

Chapter 4: Citations

§3-4-101 Citations in Lieu of Detention.

Whenever a person is arrested for a violation of this Code, the arresting officer, or any other officer, may serve upon the arrested person a citation and notice to appear in Court in lieu of keeping the person in custody or requiring bail or bond. In determining whether to issue a citation and notice to appear, the officer may consider the following factors:

- (1) Whether the person has identified himself satisfactorily.
- (2) Whether detention appears reasonably necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to the person or to another, prevent injury to property or prevent a breach of the peace.
- (3) Whether the person has ties to the Tribe or is a local resident, so as to provide reasonable assurance of the person's appearance before the Court, or whether there is substantial likelihood that the person will refuse to respond to the citation.
- (4) Whether the person previously has failed to appear in response to a citation issued pursuant to this Section or to other lawful process of the Court.

§3-4-102 Citation Contents.

- (1) The citation shall be written and include the name of the person, the person's address, date of birth, sex, the date, time, place and description of the offense charged, the date on which the citation was issued, and the name of the citing officer. A space shall be provided for the person to sign a promise to appear.

- (2) To secure the person's release, the person must give a written promise to appear in Court as required by the citation.
- (3) The citation shall also state the time and place at which the person is to appear in Court to hear the charges and post bail, which shall not be less than 72 hours after the date of the citation, nor more than 15 after the date of the citation.

§3-4-103 Effect and Procedure of Citations.

- (1) When completed by the officer, the citation shall serve as the complaint for purposes of prosecution.
- (2) If a defendant fails to appear, the Judge shall issue a Warrant of Arrest, and shall order and bail deposited by the defendant forfeited.

Chapter 5: Arraignments, Pleas and Trial Dates

§3-5-101 Charging and Bonding.

As soon as reasonably possible after arrest, but not more than 72 hours thereafter, the defendant shall be informed of the charges against him/her and be given a reasonable bond. As enacted January 5, 2015 via A05-15-095.

§3-5-102 Arraignment, Reading of Complaint and Plea.

When the defendant is brought before the Judge for arraignment, the defendant shall be provided with a copy of the complaint and be informed of the charge(s) against him/her.

The defendant shall also be informed of his/her rights under the Spirit Lake Law and Order Code and Constitution and Federal Law, including the right appear and defend against the charge(s) in person and/or with a spokesperson or attorney provided at the defendant's own expense. If the defendant desires, but does not presently have spokesperson, he/she will be given a reasonable time to secure a spokesperson.

At arraignment, the complaint shall be read and explained to the defendant and the defendant shall plead "Guilty" or "Not Guilty." If the defendant refuses to plead, the Judge shall enter that fact and a plea of "Not Guilty" on the defendant's behalf. As enacted January 5, 2015 via A05-15-095.

§3-5-103 Time of Trial.

- (1) When the defendant is brought before the Judge upon a Warrant of Arrest, the case shall be set for trial within 120 days unless continued for cause or at the request of the defendant. Bail shall then be set in accordance with Chapter 3 of the Spirit Lake Law and Order Code.

- (2) When the defendant is summonsed before the Judge pursuant to a citation as provided herein, the defendant shall appear on the date indicated on the citation hear the charges, post bail, enter a plea and be assigned a trial date. Trial shall be set within 120 days unless continued for cause or at the request of the defendant.
- (3) A defendant may post bail, enter a plea, and request a trial date prior to the return of the citation, provided, that bail or other bond satisfactory to the Judge is posted. A trial date shall be set within 120 of the return date on the citation unless continued for cause or at the request of the defendant.

§3-5-104 Sentencing.

Upon a plea of "Guilty" the Judge may impose a sentence at once or at a later date not to exceed 30 days.

§3-5-105 Fine Schedule.

The Judges shall establish a fine schedule for specified violations of this Code subject to approval of the Tribal Council.

Chapter 6: Trial Procedure

§3-6-101 Prosecution.

The Tribe shall prosecute the charge by presenting evidence against the defendant pursuant to the testimony of the law enforcement officers and any other witnesses called to support the charge, and in presenting such evidence, the Tribe may make use of either a Tribal official, member, spokesperson or a professional attorney.

§3-6-102 Evidence.

The Court shall not be bound by the common law rules of evidence, but shall use its own discretion as to what evidence is necessary and relevant to the charge and defense.

§3-6-103 Burden of Proof.

The Court shall require the charge to be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant shall be provided a full opportunity to present a defense.

§3-6-104 Bench Trial.

In a case tried without a jury, the Judge shall make a general finding of guilt or innocence and shall, upon request of any party, make specific findings, which may be embodied in a written decision.

§3-6-105 Jury Trial.

Any person accused of an offense punishable by imprisonment may demand a jury trial. The demand may be oral in open Court or by filing a written demand with the Clerk. In any case, the demand must be made at least 15 days prior to the date set for trial or the right shall be deemed waived. The verdict of the jury shall be unanimous and shall be returned by the jury in open Court.

§3-6-106 Lesser Included Offenses.

The defendant may be found guilty of a lesser included offense, despite not having been formally charged with the lesser offense.

§3-6-107 Judgment and Sentencing in Criminal Cases.

- (1) Upon a verdict of "Not Guilty" on all charges, the Tribal Court shall order the defendant released from custody and return any cash or surety bond for bail, which has not been forfeited. Upon a verdict of "Guilty" on any charge, the Court shall pronounce judgment and sentence the defendant within a reasonable time thereafter.
- (2) Prior to adjudging a sentence for the conviction of a criminal offense, the Tribal Court shall afford a reasonable opportunity for the defendant to present information or matters of extenuation and mitigation which may not have been disclosed at trial, including statements by other persons. The Tribal Court may also request and receive pertinent reports, advice and recommendations from any other person or agency, which may assist the Court in adjudging an appropriate sentence. The defendant shall be advised of the content, identity and source of any such reports or recommendations and afforded an opportunity to comment or rebut the same.
- (3) Upon a judgment sentencing a convicted person to imprisonment, the person shall be given a signed copy of the judgment and the order of commitment. The person taking custody of the convicted defendant shall receive similar copies and shall sign a receipt acknowledging custody, which shall be filed in the records of the Tribal Court.

- (4) Upon a judgment sentencing a convicted person to a fine, the person shall be given a copy of the judgment. The judgment shall direct the defendant to make payments to the Judicial Clerk in accordance with the terms of payment prescribed by the Tribal Court. The Tribal Court may order the fine to be paid in installments on a schedule to be specified by the Court. Willful or negligent failure to pay a fine in accordance with the terms of the sentence shall be contempt of Tribal Court and punished according to this Code. In support of enforcement and satisfaction of judgments and fines, the Tribal Court shall have the authority to order any other persons within its jurisdiction to deliver or surrender to the Judicial Clerk of the Tribal Police Department any money, goods or other property in their possession or under their control owned by or subject to the claim of the defaulting party; provided, however, that such orders shall be issued only following notice to the defaulting party and a hearing at which the party is determined to be in default. The provisions of this Section shall be subject to any restrictions, which may exist under the federal laws of the United States.
- (5) In addition to any sentence, the Tribal Court may order a convicted person to pay the reasonable costs incurred by the Tribal Court, Judicial Clerk, Tribal Police Department and any other Tribal agency, which is directly attributable to the case in which the person was convicted. Those costs shall not include general expenses or operation costs of the offices or agencies.

- (6) At the time of adjudging a sentence, or at any time thereafter prior to the completion of a sentence, whether of a fine, imprisonment or both, the Tribal Court may suspend all or any unsatisfied portion of that sentence. Such suspension shall be upon reasonable terms and conditions as deemed necessary and appropriate to the Tribal Court.
 - (a) The period of suspension of all or any portion of a sentence shall not extend longer than one year from and after the date of the original sentence, and if at that time the convicted person has complied fully with all of the terms and provisions of the suspension, the sentence shall be satisfied and discharged. The Tribal Court shall issue a Certificate of Discharge to that effect.
 - (b) Appropriate considerations for suspension of a sentence include, but are not limited to, the prior record of the convicted person, background and character, financial conditions, family and employment obligations, facts of extenuation or mitigation of the offense for which the person was convicted, the severity of the offense and the degree to which the victim or any other person was injured or damaged by the crime, the apparent permanence of residency within the Reservation, sense of pertinence and other relevant factors. As conditions of suspension, the Tribal Court may require, among other things, that the convicted person:

- (i) Satisfactorily meet responsibilities for the care and support of the family.
 - (ii) Perform labor or services for the benefit of the Tribe.
 - (iii) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment.
 - (iv) Satisfactorily participate in a rehabilitation program, such as driver education or Alcoholics Anonymous.
 - (v) Not possess firearms or other dangerous weapons.
 - (vi) Make restitution or reparation for any damage, loss or injury caused by the offense.
 - (vii) Not associate with individuals or groups of individuals designated by the Tribal Court.
 - (viii) Restriction from such areas or places as may be designated by the Tribal Court.
 - (ix) Not commit any offense under this Code or the ordinances of the Tribe, nor under the criminal or traffic laws of the United States or any State or any subdivision thereof.
 - (x) Not operate a motor vehicle.
 - (xi) Maintain a daily schedule as specified by the Tribal Court.
- (c) Any person accused of violating the terms and conditions of the suspension shall be given notice and a hearing before the Tribal Court. If the Tribal Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the terms and conditions of the suspended sentence has been violated, the Tribal Court may revoke the suspension and order the sentence immediately reinstated with payment of the fine or imprisonment or both. No sentence may be increased in severity nor may its nature or character be changed as a result of the revocation of the suspension.

§3-6-108 Other procedures.

All additional procedures set out in this Code shall be followed in any criminal actions to the extent that they are applicable.

§3-6-109 Civil Rights.

All accused persons shall be guaranteed all civil rights secured under the Tribal Constitution and the Spirit Lake Law and Order Code.

CULPABILITY AND INTENT

3-7-025 - CULPABILITY AND INTENT

Unless otherwise stated in the specific language of a specific criminal offense, the specific intent and/or culpability of a criminal offense shall be intentionally, knowingly, willfully OR purposely.

A. For the purposes of this title, a person engages in conduct:

1. "Intentionally" if it is their purpose to do so.
2. "Knowingly" if they know or have a firm belief, unaccompanied by substantial doubt, that they are doing so, whether or not it is their purpose to do so.
3. "Purposely" if they have a conscious object to engage in conduct of that nature or to cause such a result.
4. "Recklessly" if they engage in the conduct in conscious and clearly unjustifiable disregard of a substantial likelihood of the existence of the relevant facts or risks, such disregard involving a gross deviation from acceptable standards of conduct. Reckless conduct shall include any conduct meeting the above definition as well as any intentional, knowing, willful or purposeful conduct.
5. "Negligently" if they engage in the conduct with an unreasonable disregard of a substantial likelihood of the existence of the relevant facts or risks, such disregard involving a gross deviation from acceptable community standards of conduct.
6. "Willfully" if they engage in the conduct intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly.

B. Except as otherwise expressly provided, where culpability is required, that kind of culpability is required with respect to every element of the conduct and to the other elements or circumstances specified in the definition of the offense, except that where the required culpability is "intentionally", the culpability required as to an attendant circumstance is "knowingly".

C. Except as otherwise expressly provided, if conduct is an offense if it causes a particular result, the required degree of culpability is required with respect to the result.

- D. Any lesser degree of required culpability is satisfied if the proven degree of culpability is higher.
- E. Causation may be found where the result would not have occurred but for the conduct of the accused operating either alone or concurrently with another.

SENTENCING PROVISIONS

3-7-030 - MINIMUM SENTENCING

Unless otherwise stated in the specific language for a specific criminal offense, there shall be no mandatory minimum sentence for a criminal offense enumerated in this Code.

3-7-035 - MAXIMUM SENTENCING

CHAPTER 8: HABEAS CORPUS

§3-8-101 Who May Prosecute.

Every person imprisoned or otherwise restrained of his/her liberty on the Spirit Lake Reservation may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of his/her imprisonment or restraint and, if it be illegal, to be delivered therefrom.

§3-8-102 Writ for Purpose of Bail.

When a person is imprisoned or detained in custody on any criminal charge for want of bail, such person is entitled to a writ of habeas corpus for the purpose of giving bail upon averring that fact in his/her petition, without alleging that the person is illegally confined.

§3-8-103 Application for Writ - How Made.

Application for the writ is made by petition, signed either by the person for whom the relief is intended, or by some person on his/her behalf, and must specify:

- (1) The person being held is unlawfully imprisoned or restrained of liberty, why the imprisonment or restraint is unlawful, the officer or person by whom he/she is confined or restrained, the place where the person is being restrained, and the names of all the parties if they are known or describing them if they are not known.
- (2) The petition must be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person making the application for relief.

§3-8-104 Content of Writ.

When the Judge is satisfied that the writ should be issued, it must be issued without delay.

- (1) The writ must be directed to and must command the person having custody of or restraining the person on whose behalf the application is made to have the person being held or restrained before the Court at a time and place therein specified.
- (2) The issues to be determined upon return of the writ must be stated either in the writ, in an order attached to the writ or in a copy of the petition attached to the writ.

§3-8-106 Service of the Writ.

The writ must be served upon the person to whom it is directed and must be served in the same manner as a summons.

§3-8-106 Content of the Return.

The person upon whom the writ is served must make a return to the Court and state in the return:

- (1) Whether the detained person is in his/her custody or under his/her restraint and the authority for holding the person.
- (2) If the person making the return had previously had custody or was detaining the person identified in the writ, the return must state particularly to whom, what time and place, for what cause and by what authority the custody was released.
- (3) The return must be signed by the person making the return and unless that person is a sworn public official and makes the return in an official capacity, the return must be verified by oath.

§3-8-107 Hearing on Return.

The detained person shall be brought before the Court by the person commanded in the writ as soon as possible. A hearing must be held on the day set and may be summary in nature. Evidence may be produced and compelled as in civil actions.

§3-8-108 Judgment.

If the detained person is in official custody, the person may not be released on a writ of habeas corpus for any technical defect in commitment not affecting the detained person's substantive rights. Following the hearing, the Judge shall make a judgment regarding the custody of the detained person as the facts and circumstances warrant. The judgment shall be effective immediately.

CHAPTER 9: EXTRADITIONS

As enacted January 5, 2015 via A05-15-097.

§3-9-101 Who May Be Extradited

Any person residing, located or present within the exterior boundaries of the Spirit Lake Reservation for whom an arrest warrant has been issued by any state court, municipal court, federal court or tribal court for the alleged commission of an offense and/or violation of law beyond the jurisdiction of the Spirit Lake Tribal Court may be extradited to another jurisdiction as provided for in this section.

§3-9-102 Arrest

Any BIA and/or Spirit Lake Police Officer may arrest any person who is the subject of an arrest warrant issued outside of the jurisdiction of the Spirit Lake Tribal Court if the officer is presented with said warrant and/or if the officer has probable cause to believe that the person is the subject of such an arrest warrant.

§3-9-103 Waiver of Hearing

Any person arrested on a warrant issued outside the jurisdiction of the Spirit Lake Tribal Court may waive the right to an extradition hearing in Tribal Court and consent to return to the applicable jurisdiction by executing a written waiver in the presence of a correctional officer, police officer and/or judge of the Tribal Court. If a waiver is executed, the Tribal Court shall issue an order transferring custody of that person to the applicable jurisdiction or, with the consent of the applicable jurisdiction, authorize the voluntary return of the person to the applicable jurisdiction.

§3-9-104 Hearing

Upon arrest of a person who is the subject of an arrest warrant issued outside of the jurisdiction of the Spirit Lake Tribal Court, that person must be brought before the Tribal Court for a hearing not more than five (5) days after the arrest. The Tribal Court shall conduct a hearing to determine the validity of the warrant issued by the jurisdiction seeking extradition, to determine whether the person before the Court is the same person charged in the warrant and to consider other relevant circumstances as may be presented to the Tribal Court.

§3-9-105 Issuance of Removal Order

Upon a determination that the warrant from the jurisdiction seeking extradition is valid, the person in custody is the person charged in the warrant and after considering all other relevant matters, the Court may execute an order authorizing and directing removal of that person by the appropriate officials of the jurisdiction seeking extradition.

§3-9-106 Execution of Order and Notification to the Jurisdiction Seeking Extradition

If the Tribal Court executes such an order, the Judicial Clerk shall then notify the jurisdiction seeking extradition that the person sought is in custody and that the person sought must be removed within five (5) days.

§3-9-107 Failure to Remove

If an appropriate official of the jurisdiction seeking removal does not appear and take custody within the allotted time, the person taken into custody shall be released and shall not be taken into custody again for the same charge unless a new warrant is issued by the jurisdiction seeking extradition.

Ø3-9-108 Sanctions for Lack of Reciprocity

In no case shall an arrest warrant from a court of another jurisdiction be honored if that jurisdiction, by its laws, rules or practices prohibits or refuses to provide reciprocal extradition of a person who may be the subject of an arrest warrant issued by the Spirit Lake Tribal Court.

As enacted January 5, 2015 via A05-15-097.

SPIRIT LAKE TRIBE
RESOLUTION NO. A05-22-444

WHEREAS, the Spirit Lake Tribe, formerly known as the Devils Lake Sioux Tribe, is a federally recognized Tribe governed by a revised Constitution dated May 5, 1960, approved by the Acting Commissioner, Bureau of Indian Affairs, July 14, 1961, and subsequently amended July 17, 1969; May 3, 1974; April 16, 1976; May 4, 1981; and August 19, 1996; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the Spirit Lake Tribe generally authorizes and empowers the Spirit Lake Tribal Council to engage in activities on behalf of and in the interest of the welfare and benefits of the Tribe and of the enrolled members thereof; and

WHEREAS, the Spirit Lake Tribal Council (hereinafter the "Tribal Council") is the governing body of the Tribe and is empowered to administer the economic resources and financial affairs of the Tribe; and

WHEREAS, Article VI, Section 4 of the Constitution authorizes and empowers the Tribal Council to "enact ordinances to regulate the conduct and domestic relations of the members of the Tribe, or Indians from other tribes on the reservation, subject to the review of the Secretary of the Interior or his duly authorized representative,"; and

WHEREAS, the Tribe's current Drug Code (Title 3, Chapter 10) needs general updating; and

WHEREAS, the Tribe's current Unlawful Consumption charge in said Drug Code fails to adequately account for the legal sale and consumption of alcohol at the Spirit Lake Casino; and

WHEREAS, the proposed Revised Drug Code addresses the above referenced issues; and

WHEREAS, the proposed Revised Drug Code has been posted for review and comment for a period of at least thirty (30) days pursuant to Section 1-3-101 of the Spirit Lake Law and Order Code (as amended on May 14, 2019 by Resolution A05-19-205).

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the previous version of the Drug Code, as enacted on February 20, 2015, by Resolution A05-15-172, is hereby repealed; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the previously proposed and reviewed Title Three (3), Chapter Ten (10), Drug Code, is hereby approved, enacted, and adopted for use as by the Spirit Lake Tribe; and

BE IT FUTHER RESOLVED that the Tribal Council pursuant to their vested authority hereby approves the amendments and additions to become a part of the Code for all purposes and shall be codified and incorporated herein in a manner consistent with the numbering and organization of this Code.

CERTIFICATION

I, the undersigned as Secretary-Treasurer of the Tribal Council, do hereby certify that the Tribal Council is composed of six (6) members of whom five (5) were present, constituting a quorum for a Special Meeting duly called and convened on this 27TH day of September, 2022 and approved this resolution by an affirmative vote of three (3) in favor, none (0) opposed, none (0) abstaining, and one (1) absent (Waynita Chaske, Crow Hill District Representative). The Secretary-Treasurer does not vote and the Chairman votes only in case of a tie.
